Who sponsored C.I. Scofield for membership in the Lotos Club in New York?

C.I. Scofield's sponsor for membership in the Lotos Club in New York is widely identified as Samuel Untermeyer, a prominent Wall Street lawyer and influential Zionist who was on the club's literary committee at the time of Scofield's admission[1] [2] [3] [4] [5].

Untermeyer and his associated network are frequently reported to have supported both Scofield's entrance to the club and his subsequent Bible publishing and travel activities[1] [3] [5]. While some sources point to a wider group of New York elites, Samuel Untermeyer is most often specifically cited, with several biographical treatments and investigative articles characterizing him as instrumental in Scofield's acceptance and continuing involvement with the Lotos Club[1] [3] [4] [5].

It is important to note that direct primary documentation (such as membership nomination records) from the Lotos Club is not publicly available, so this account is based on multiple historical analyses and biographical sources that point consistently to Samuel Untermeyer as the key sponsor for Scofield's membership.
